PEOPLE WILL TALK

PEOPLE WILL TALK

Another year has passed and another year of school has been completed. For some it was their first year of high school, while for others, their last. Yet either way, the school year has been packed with memories people will talk about for quite some time.

September 3, 1985

The sophomores were unsure of their new surroundings and were often seen walking in each other's shadows. The upperclassmen sometimes wondered whether the class of '88 were clones of each other or if each one could possibly house his/her identity. With time, the newcomers became part of the S.C. family.

The juniors were another story. Like all other eleventh graders across the nation, ours too would be slapped in the face with those dreaded letters S-A-T. Maybe they were prepared for those letters, but new letters soon entered into their vocabulary. The letters E-G-G could be associated with the words "fun" or maybe "childish". It all depended on what side of the road you were on.

The '86 crowd showed up with a new name. They finally found themselves classified with that long-awaited title of "Seniors". They were ready for their final year at S.C. and yet a little uneasy about the independence to follow.

It began with the sophomore year. It ended with the senior year. The time in between has been/will be memorable. From beginning to end, people will talk.

To Mrs. Van Auken

I cannot think of anyone more appropriate than Mrs. Van Auken to whom this class should dedicate its yearbook.

During the three and one-half years that I have known and worked with this fine lady, her loyalty service to the school, dedication and confidentiality are incomparable. Her love for the students is portrayed daily. Even those who are "bad" have possibilities of becoming "good" in her mind.

There is no clock in her day. She is not satisfied until each of her reports or daily productions of various bulletins is accurate and complete up to the very last entry.

However, first and foremost in my mind is the amazing way Mrs. Van Auken brightens up the high school office the minute she arrives in the morning. It seems as though the entire operation depends upon her presence. She is going to be sorely missed, especially by me.

Farewell, dear lady!!

People will talk for years to come about how Mrs. Van Auken kept Sussex Central High School running smoothly. Mrs. Van Auken, this one's for you.

Good-Bye. We'll Miss You!

Co-op Is A Good . . .

The CO-OP Program is a work program offered by Sussex Central and outside businesses. The student goes to school for a half day and then works for a half day. While working, the student gains experience while earning some money.It gives the student a chance to find out what job he or she might be suited for.

Theresa Stec

Lori Davis

"My place of employment is Rust-Weir Supply Company (above right). At Rust Weir I get a chance to be around people and to help people.

"I really enjoy my job; it's about the best place I ever worked. The people who run the store are especially nice and very helpful.

"Working half a day doesn't affect my school work, because at one time or another I get a chance to do my homework. So far, I'm doing well in all my subjects.

"I feel that it would be a good experience for everyone to try CO-OP. It would get them familiar with the working world and would also help them to decide what their career goals would be.

"My main reason for getting on CO-OP was that I wanted to explore the career fields which I wanted to take up in college. That is, either I would like to work in a business (like I'm doing now) or I would like to work in a doctor's office typing, answering the phone, filing, etc.

"CO-OP is a good experience because it gets me used to what the busines world is like."

Andrea Cathell

"I work at Joy Freeze (above) in Millsboro.

"Working half a day doesn't affect my school work. I have more time now.

"I decided to go on CO-OP because I didn't need all the classes I had signed up for.

"I would recommend CO-OP to others, because it gives experience with the real world.

"I like working with the people."

Experience Because . . .

Melissa Johnson

"I work at Roses (below) in Millsboro, and I love it!

"Working half of the school day does not affect my school work at all. I'm doing better in my classes and I enjoy it more.

"I think that any grade should be able to participate in CO-OP. Everyone should have an opportunity to participate, if they choose.

"I decided on CO-OP because I got to the point where I skipped more than I was in school. This happened because I was bored. I love working, and I thought it would be great for me.

"I'm using CO-OP as experience in the working world, but not for just one certain job. I want to learn how to communicate with others and how to work with them."

Dawn Bryan

"I work at the courthouse (left) for the Sussex County Council Accounting Division, and I like working there very much.

"Working a half day hasn't affected my school work at all.

"Yes, I do feel that everyone should get a chance to participate in CO-OP.

"From working on CO-OP, I hope to obtain a full time position.

"I am working on CO-OP as experience for future jobs."

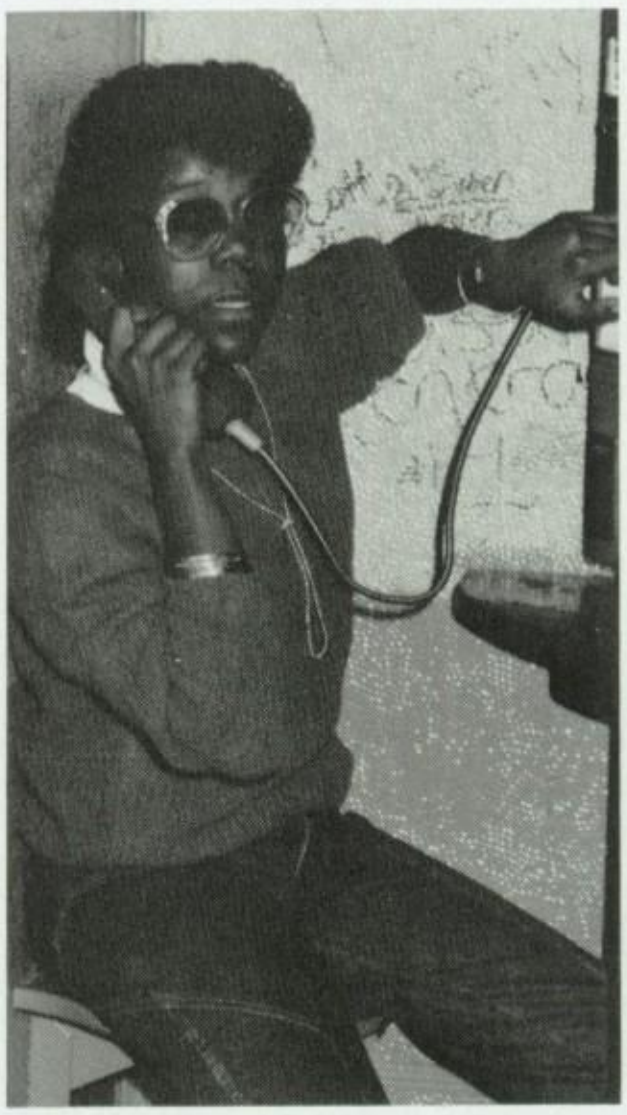
"Is There Life Underneath . . . .

When we think of school, what is the first thing that comes to mind? Books, books, and more books. Well, there is life underneath all those books.

As school reopened, we had the opening of The New Knights Inn. The Knights Inn is under the supervision of Ms. Hovermale, a newcomer to SCHS. The students prepare a variety of foods, which they serve to the faculty.

On September 12, Parent's Night was held. All of the parents were invited to the school. They had a brief opportunity to see how the school day goes. They spent about 3 minutes in each class so the teacher could explain grading policies, class functions, schedules, etc. They had the opportunity to see exactly what their children do during the course of the day.

Everyone knows that teenagers spend a tremendous amout of time on the telephone at home, as well as, in school. It is a wonder if we all don't develop some incurable ear disease and our ears swell up and take on the shape of a telephone.



Most classes you think of tend to be hum-drum and boring, not Mr. Bibb's. His physics class combines fun and learning. This year part of that fun consisted of making ice cream.

The Homecoming is another important part of high school. Along with it comes the ever popular float meetings. This is a long drawn out process, but it is worth it in the end.

Now, as you know, there is life underneath all the books and homework. Like we have said, "People Will Talk!"

Mr. Donald Mitchell's day begins at 6:30. When he arrives at school at 7:00, he checks the heat and organizes his crew for jobs, such as cutting the grass or lining the fields. After 12:30, he directs clean-up of the cafeteria, auditorium, and shop area. He and his crew usually eat lunch around 11:30, but it's always on the run. Afternoons he cleans up and prepares for any night-time use of the building. After organizing his night crew at 2:30, he completes his work and leaves the building around 5:00, but he returns in the evening to supervise clean-up. Mr. Mitchell and his crew are responsible for maintenance of both high school and elementary wings. At the end of his school day, he goes home to eat and then out. He loves country and western music, fried chicken and seafood. The most satisfying thing about Mr. Mitchell's job is to walk down the hall and meet someone who smiles, says "good morning" and comments how nice the building looks. Most frustrating are the days when nothing seems to go right. Mr. Mitchell feels graduation is very special, because it makes him feel good to see the students graduating, and he hopes everything goes well for them. We appreciate you, Mr. Mitchell.

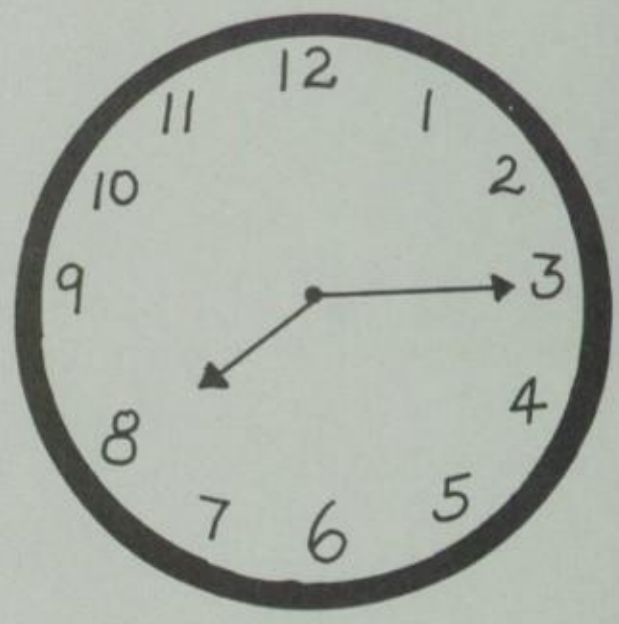
Mr. Donald Mitchell, Engineer

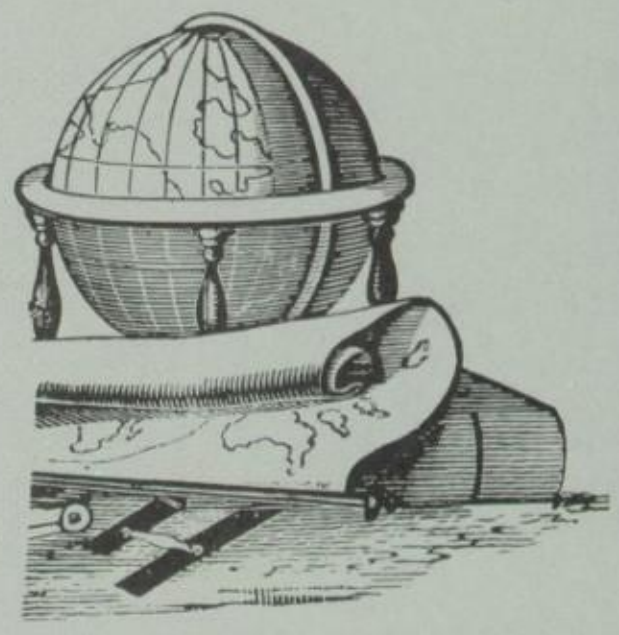
Not everyone who comes to school has the same kind of day. Each person is unique, so quite naturally each one's day will be different. There are six people who have been interviewed. They are similar in that each one spends a part of each day in school, yet they are in school for different reasons, and their after school life is uniquely their own.

Mrs. Fran Donoway, English Teacher

Mrs. Fran Donaway gets up around 5:30 and has toast or Danish for breakfast. Mornings are not her best time of day. She arrives at school around 7:35. Lunch is coffee while she grades papers and talks. Afternoons are spend dreading her 7th period class! A hockey fan, Mrs. Donaway stays for most of the home games. At home, she fixes dinner, watches T.V. and relaxes with her husband and her dogs. The most satisfying aspect of her job is having former students come back to see her. The most frustrating things are those she alone cannot change. She enjoys a variety of music, especially jazz and folk, and her favorite food is lobster. Her days are varied. For example, there was the morning she woke up to find that the puppy had dragged trash all over the trailer. What a lovely morning, Mrs. Donaway!

Shirlronia Hooper

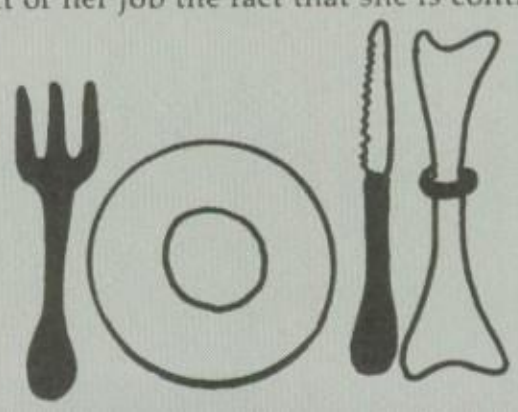




Mrs. Ann Byram's day begins around 5:30, and she arrives at school at 5:30. After making sure her staff is all here, she prepares menus and orders food for 1000 people. She eats a half hour lunch at 10:15 and delivers snacks to the elementary students. After feeding the elementary and high school students their lunch, Mrs. Byram and her staff clean up, put away food and prepare for the next day. At 1:30 she deposits money in the bank, and then she heads for home where she tidies up and relaxes by watching some soaps. She and her husband eat dinner around 5:30, and she enjoys watching T.V. after dinner. Mrs. Byram finds the most satisfying aspect of her job the fact that she is contributing to the health of students by providing nutritious lunches. Her greatest frustration is dealing with the chaos which occurs when deliveries don't arrive on time. She enjoys listening to western music and eating fried chicken. Thanks a lot, Mrs. Byram!

Shirlronia Hooper

Mrs. Ann Byram, Cafeteria Supervisor



Shawn Cullen, Senior

Shawn Cullen gets up around 6:45 and has either cereal or toast for breakfast. He arrives at school at 8:00 and visits with his girlfriend until 8:15. After homeroom, it's P.O.D., Contemporary Issues, English and Advanced Chemistry. Shawn either eats a double platter in the cafeteria or skips and goes to McDonalds. At 3:10, when most people are leaving school, Shawn begins football practice. After dinner, he falls out until around 8:00, when he starts his homework. Then he listens to the radio and talks to his girlfriend, Diane. Every week day is pretty much the same for him, but each weekend brings something new and challenging. Shawn's favorite food is pizza, and he loves rock-n-roll. The most satisfying aspect of school for Shawn are the day's end, getting good grades, and working to improve life for students through the Student Council. The things that frustrate him most are hot having as much freedon as students in other high schools, the unwillingness of the school board to make changes. He feels that there is too much repitition and not enough variety in the students at this school. Basically, he is bored and can't wait to get to college. Good luck, Shawn!

Shirlronia Hooper

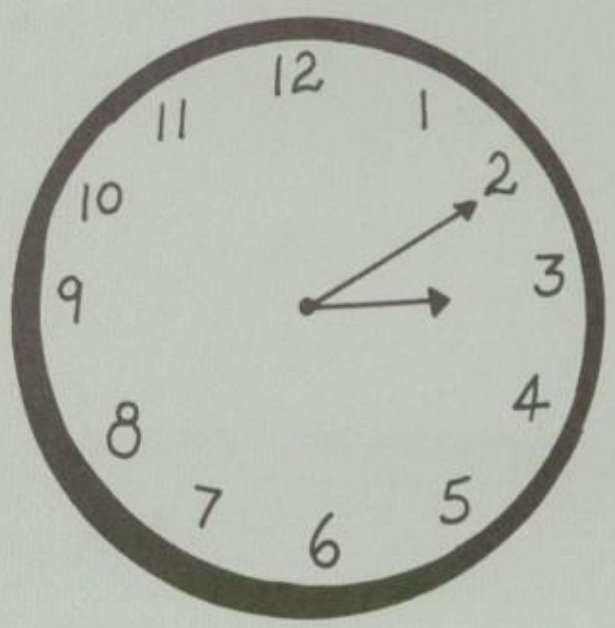
Coach Phil Shultie, Wrestling Coach

Coach Phil Shultie's day starts at 5:55. He eats breakfast only twice a week — bran flakes. He leaves for school at 6:30. In the course of the day, he checks on his wrestlers' grades to see how well they are functioning in their classes. For lunch, he usually has a salad. At the end of the day, Coach Shultie checks the bulletin board to find out where and what time his wrestlers will be practicing. He leaves school around 7:30 or 8:00. Mr. Shultie would like to wish the seniors the best of luck in their endeavors.

Mr. Earl Savage's day usually begins with a phone call from a teacher needing a substitute for the day. He doesn't take time for breakfast. When he arrives at school around 7:45, he consults with the custodians and various teachers. By 8:05 he's mingling with students in the hall as they arrive. After spending some time reviewing his responsibilities for the day, he gets down to work on conferences, paper work, consulting with Mr. Wagner and others. After lunch in Knights' Inn or in the cafeteria, Mr. Savage spends his afternoon consulting with Mrs. Byram, meeting with the guidance personnel, conferring with students, parents and faculty and handling endless phone calls. He also tries to visit some classes in progress. Mr. Savage makes it a point to attend most of the after school activities. Mr. Savage enjoys ending his day with a glass of iced tea, an hour of T.V. and reading the morning paper. No two days are ever the same for Mr. Savage. He finds this keeps him enthusiastic about his job. Mr. Savage especially enjoys the time he spends with students and wishes his day included more opportunities to visit classes. He's an avid fan of country music and loves any kind of "food that comes out of the water".

Shirlronia Hooper

Mr. Earl Savage, Principal



Sussexpressions

Captured by the camera are samples of the expressions of S.C. Look around you any day and you will see faces reflecting concentration, frustration, shocked glee, friendliness, amusement and pride. Of all the expressions, those seen the most say, "We know how to appreciate life!"

The word Friday has always had that special ring to it. It's the day we've been looking forward to since Monday. Friday has always had a meaningful effect on us since our elementary days. But now we have a completely new outlook on our weekend life.

At the tone of the bell on a Friday afternoon, we disappear from the halls in a flash. We are definitely anxious to get started on the weekend that awaits us.

Parties are an important ingredient in a teenager's weekend life, yet they aren't always as frequent as we'd like them to be. When a party is going well and it seems like nothing could go wrong, something usually does. Whether it be an argument between two "bestest" friends, someone spilling some punch on your mother's carpet, glass shattering somewhere in the house, or the ultimate worst — some unexpected, uninvited, uniformed officials show up! It couldn't possibly get worse, could it?

3. The freaks come out at night.
4. Hey Guys . . . isn't that Matt's car!?
5. And they say seniors don't have fun . . . Who told you that lie?

Watching a movie at Midway, traveling to Nicola's for pizza, and then taking a walk on the beach is a typical weekend night for some of the peaceful type who attend S.C.

Another way to spend a weekend is to get a group of friends together to go see a concert. Some of us envy those who managed to obtain concert tickets for Sting at JFK. Yet, traveling all the way to Philadelphia doesn't exactly sound fun to all of us. We wouldn't mind traveling to Salisbury Civic Center to see New Edition or even Alabama.

There are a thousand and one things to do on weekends (not counting homework!). But when we can't think of something decent to do, we gather at McDonalds. A weekend just wouldn't be complete without mischief. Toilet paper and soap mysteriously find their way to unsuspecting cars (and sometimes houses).

The weekend is over . . . Homework is not done . . . Monday is here . . . Five more days 'til Friday!

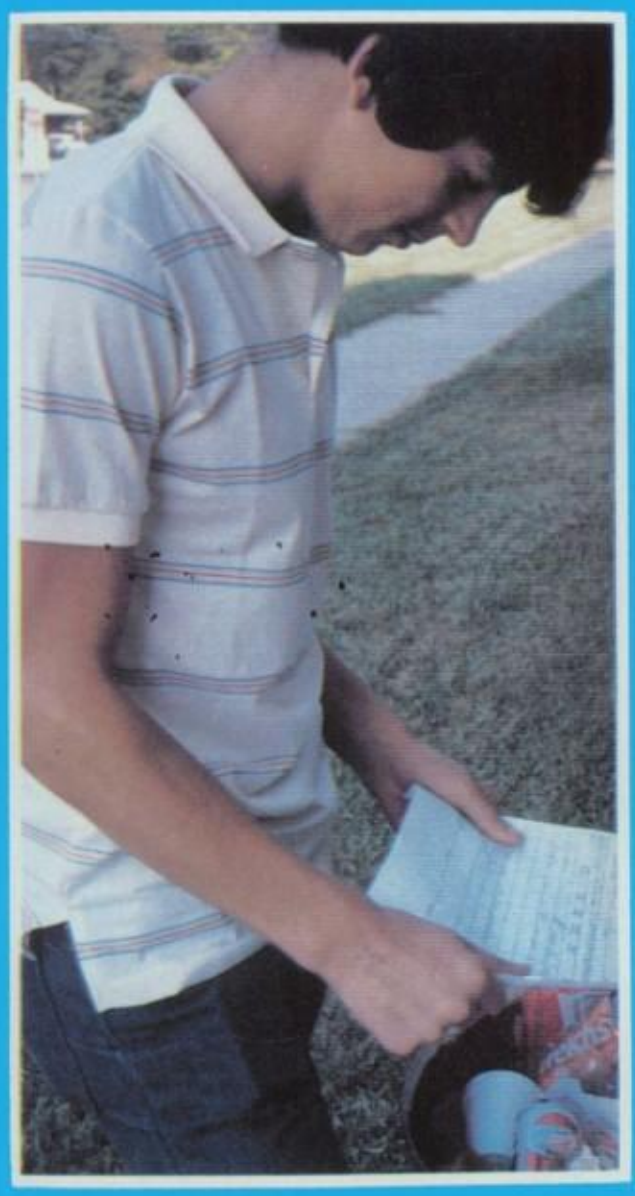
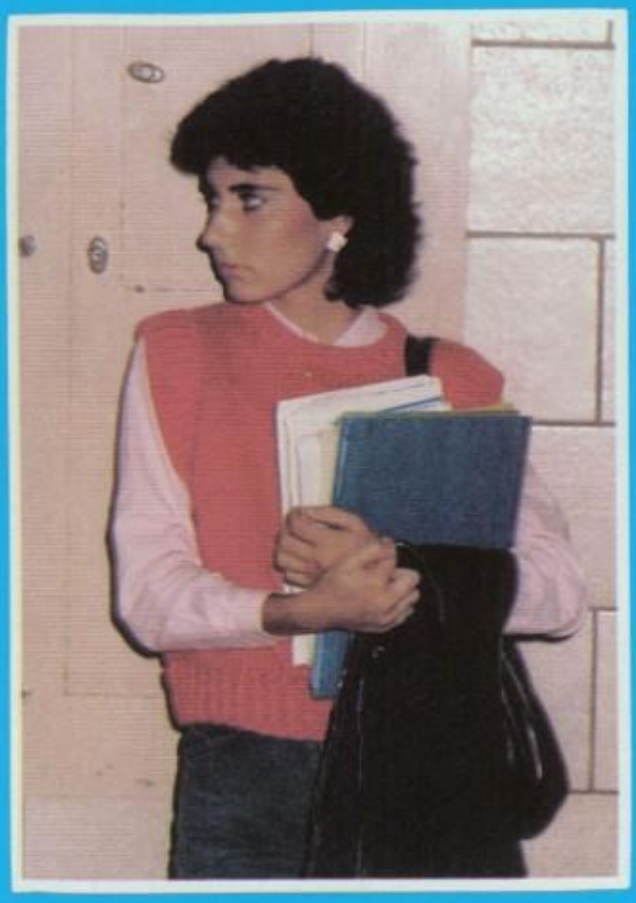
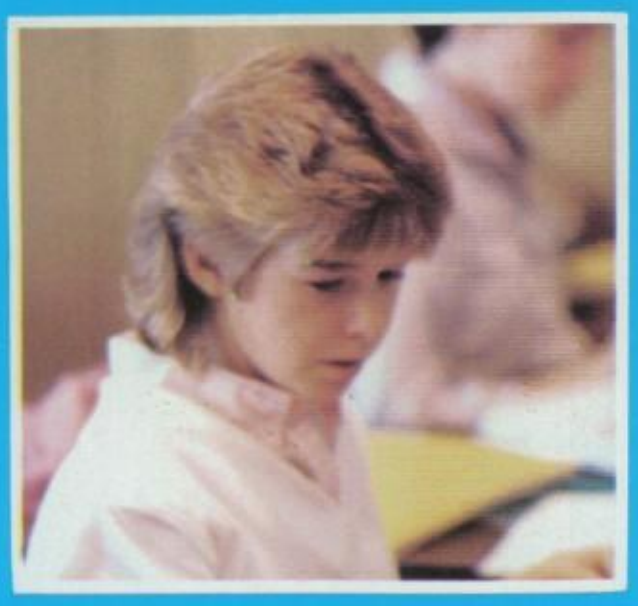
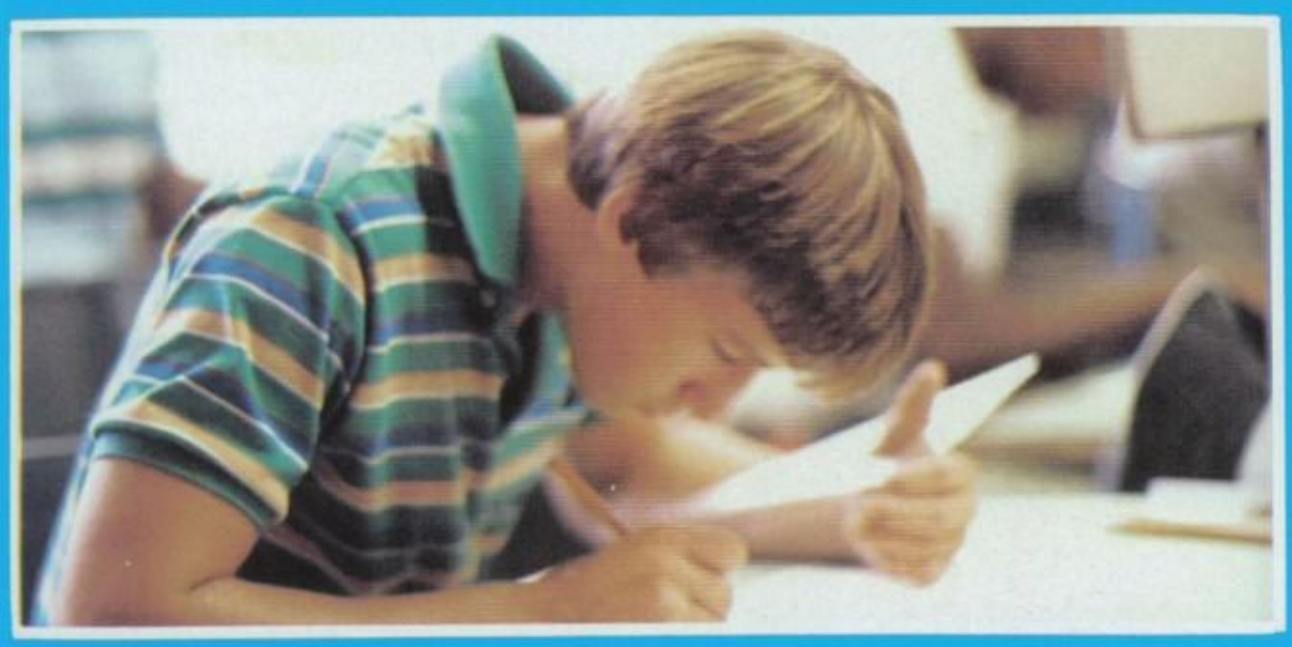
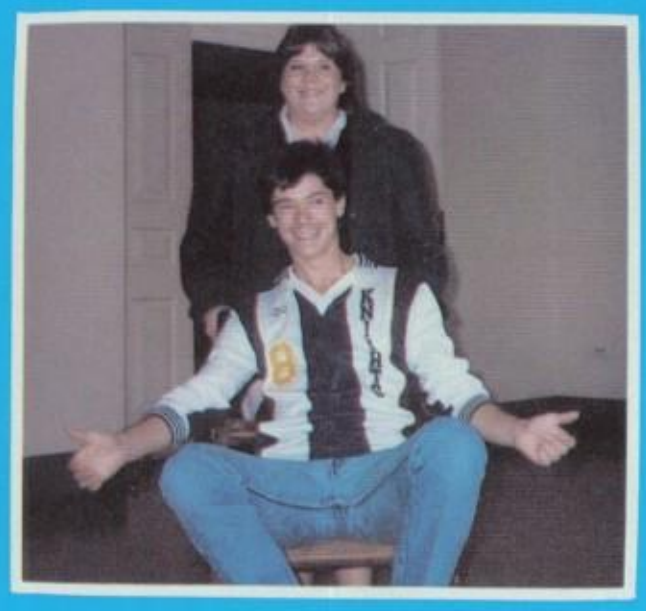
Our Weekend

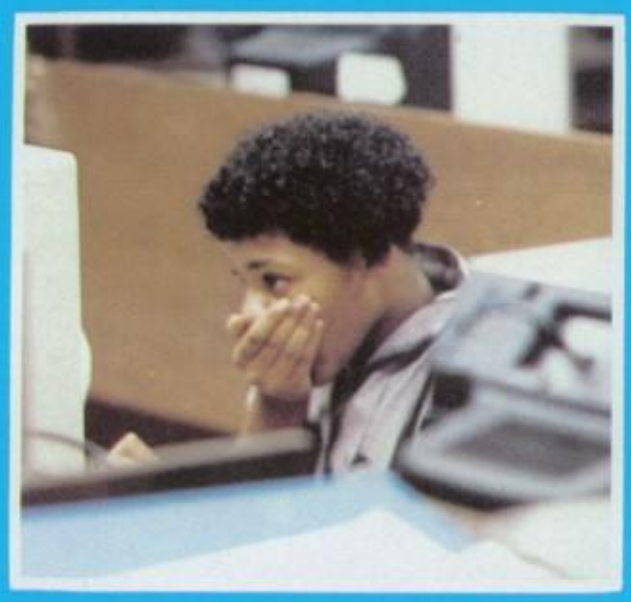












The underclassmen of the 1985-86 school year have a lot to look forward to. For instance, the class of '87 recieved their liscenses and cars while the sophomores were just learning by the book the laws of the highway. The underclassmen have their senior year, the prom, and a lot more to look forward to. Don't rush these years; they're supposed to be the best time of your life!

People Will Talk

When we walked into school the first day, we were to find many changes. First of all, we learned that we were not to hear bells, due to their not working last year. We were sweating in our classes, and we enjoyed a few half days of school. Many of us went shopping, swimming, to the beach or just hung around with friends.

For seniors, these half days were special. They knew that this would be the last time they would get out of school due to heat and humidity. So they lived it up.

About What's New!

There was also to be construction work done on the elementary side, and later on the high school side. So, we had the pleasure of being disrupted and distrubed by the "Big Yellow Monsters". This construction also added to our already bad parking problem. In the end, however, we would have new classrooms in the high school.

Despite all the changes, we had time to play basketball after school in the newly organized intramurals. For all the changes this year, it will be one to remember. We had many great times.

"Is A CR Representative Present?"

Amy Barkauskie

It was September 28. Everyone was talking about her . . . Hurricane Gloria was coming . . . School was even cancelled the next day . . . but what about the Bonfire that was planned for that evening? And the football dummy was already dressed and painted in Milford colors! Obviously, it had to be postponed 'til a later date. Sure enough, Sussex Central survived the hurricane, and there was talk of another bonfire for the following Thursday. But it was an away game at Dover, and everyone thought more people would participate if it were for a home game. So the football dummy had to be painted and dressed again, now from Dover's colors of red and white to those of Caesar Rodney.

October 10. Everyone met at Grace Methodist Church to parade through the circle at Georgetown. (This time it really was going to happen!) Chants and fight songs were heard all the way back to the school. When we finally made it to the baseball field where the bonfire was being lit, everyone gathered around to get psyched up. The cheerleaders semicircled around the hot flaming bonfire and cheered, and cheered, and cheered. Finally, Mrs. Barkauskie asked for a "C. R. representative" which was to be ceremoniously tossed into the fire by the captains . . . but a psyched up, excited football player picked up the dummy and wildly threw it into the flames! An unexpected happening that turned out to be an even more effective action — thanks noseguard Billy Messick!

As the sun went down, all the teams started to chant fight songs independently, and the firemen put out the last burning embers. Although we lost the game the following night, it had been a positive and successful school event . . . "Winning isn't everything; wanting to is." — Vince Lombardi

"Too Much Pizza And Fried Chicken . . ."

Laurence Guiader

Each new year brings new faces to the halls of Sussex. However, not intending to slight anyone, none are quite as . . . well, as French as that of Laurence Guiader. This friendly young lady from the dreamt-of city of Paris, has probably talked to most of us. But the real privilege came with getting to know Laurence.

This was her first visit to the U. S., though she had spent time in other countries such as England, Greece, Italy, and Spain. Lau, as she likes to be called, liked it here. Her first impression of our country was that is was an open and relaxed atmosphere. Evidently, the Porters, her host family, did what Americans love to do when it's hot: hit the sand! Laurence was "impressed" with the beach, but "too much pizza and fried chicken is no good for anyone."

Certainly, Lau was a bit surprised by our school. It is quite a bit smaller than her French school of 2500 - 3000 students! In Paris, after each period, you can go where you want or participate in sports. Oh well, grin and bear it! Lau, no such thing there! Just the same, Laurence liked SCHS for the friendly casualness between students and teachers. Also, she felt the people here were open and tried to understand and help her.

After high school, Lau plans to go to college in France as an international marketing major. (She has already graduated from high school in Paris.) When asked if her future plans could include living in the States, she said she didn't know . . . her friends and parents are in France . . . but "maybe".

People will talk — and probably always will — about what a pleasure it has been to have Laurence among us this year. Eh bien! Bonne chance, Lau!

Homecoming week is Spirit Week, and each day has a different theme. This year Monday was Bum Out Day; Tuesday, Dress Up Day; Wednesday, Costume Day; Thursday, Beach Day; and Friday, Blue and Gold Day. Teachers submitted the names of the two people whom they felt showed the most school spirit by dressing up that day. The Bummiest Bums were Jill Porter and Kirk Lawson. The sharpest tacks were Al Sample and Tammy White. The best get-ups for Costume Day were worn by Chris Angel and Lesli Miller. The most tropical were Mike McCarty and Laurie Shortt. Most spirited blue and gold people were Lisa Taylor and Bill Batchelor. Throughout Spirit week, each class sold chain links, which decorated the cafeteria, and later the gym for the pep rally. Proceeds from the sale went to the winning senior class. Friday's Homecoming pep rally also included a slave auction, in which certain seniors and teachers were sold. Proceeds from the auction went to the Student Council. The purpose of Spirit Week and the pep rally is to show the football team that we are behind them and to raise money for the Student Council.

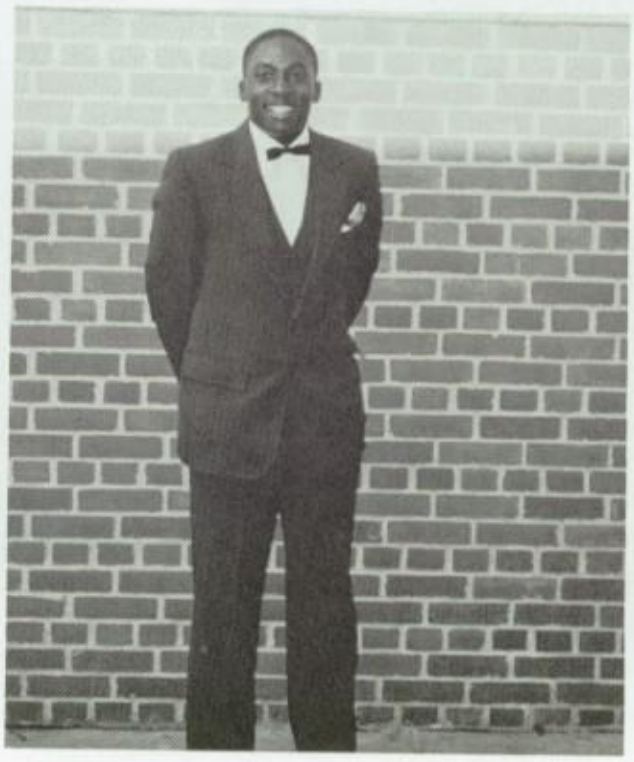
JUNIORS



Homecoming . . .

The Sussex Central varsity football team ended its heartbreaking season with a tough 14-7 loss to Cape Henlopen Vikings on Saturday, November 23, 1985.

The Golden Knights, who virtually dominated Cape on both sides of the line all day, took first blood in the fourth quarter when sophomore fullback Billy Eskridge scored on a seven yard run. Chuck Hall added the PAT to lead 7-0.

A Tough Loss

Late in the fourth quarter, Cape took an 8-7 lead with 29 seconds left to play and scored again on an interception return. The Cape win does not show what poise SC showed throughout the game.

Halftime activities carried on the wonderful tradition of spirit that SC is famous for. Each class displayed the project that they had been working on the previous weeks. For the third consectutive year, the class of '86 once again found themselves victorious in the float competition, thus making history at Sussex Central.

Overall, SC's 1985 Homecoming football game was an enjoyable and unforgettable experience for everyone.

In Memory Of Bruce Allen Workman

That fateful day is one many of us will not forget. On that day a very special classmate and friend was taken away from us. Bruce Allen Workman died on July 11, 1984.

Bruce had a special way of keeping everyone around him laughing. His jokes never failed to take the tense feeling out of a classroom atmosphere, and his personality never failed to be "down to earth". His carefree smile brightened our days and if we were depressed, he was always determined to cheer us up.

For those of you who never met Bruce
You missed out on an undoubtable friend.
For those of you who knew him
The friendship you shared will never end.

Class Of '87

The Juniors, known as the class in the middle, contradicted this social fact by winning the majority of our pep rallies this year. The class of '87 has moved up a lot since last year and are ready and determined for their big year. To them, this year is probably considered to be just a warm-up. What's left to be done for next year? The people at Sussex Central will have to wait to find out. Time is the best critic and we wonder how hard they'll pull. As for this time, we wish the best for '87.

What Being A Sophomore Is

We often think of our sophomore year as being both exciting and frightening. Exciting? Yes, this is the time we start to grow into young adults, for accepting responsibilities and making decisions that could affect us for the rest of our lives. It is also exciting because this is the year most students get their license. This is one of the most exciting events that happens during your high school years.

Frightening? Yes, especially the first day of school when everyone knows where they are going except you. Everyone else looks down on you because you are "The babies of the school!"

A New Class At S.C.

What are Sophomores? We upperclassmen usually recognize them as the minority of the school who do not have their licenses and are not as enthusiastic at the pep rallies. How badly mistaken we are, because they are just warming up to pick up where we leave off. We will leave them with the courage, endurance, and strength which we have built upon throughout our years at S.C. This will be something they will learn to add to in order to reach their goals. The class of '88 will prove to be more successful as they build upon what previous classes have left them.

New Faces At S.C.

The new faces in the crowd, better known as sophomores, have taken a big step toward the top of the school ladder. No better, no worse than the next person, just hanging in there hoping for the best to come. The greatest advantage the class of '88 has over the rest of us is the fact that they have more fun times ahead. With this in mind, we hope they make the best of it.

As each day passes your year of being a sophmore is soon coming to an end. This year for you hopefully was exciting and filled with a sense of accomplishment. New goals should now be entering your minds in hope of completing every one. Soon you'll reach being a junior then a senior, so take it slow and enjoy all that you can.

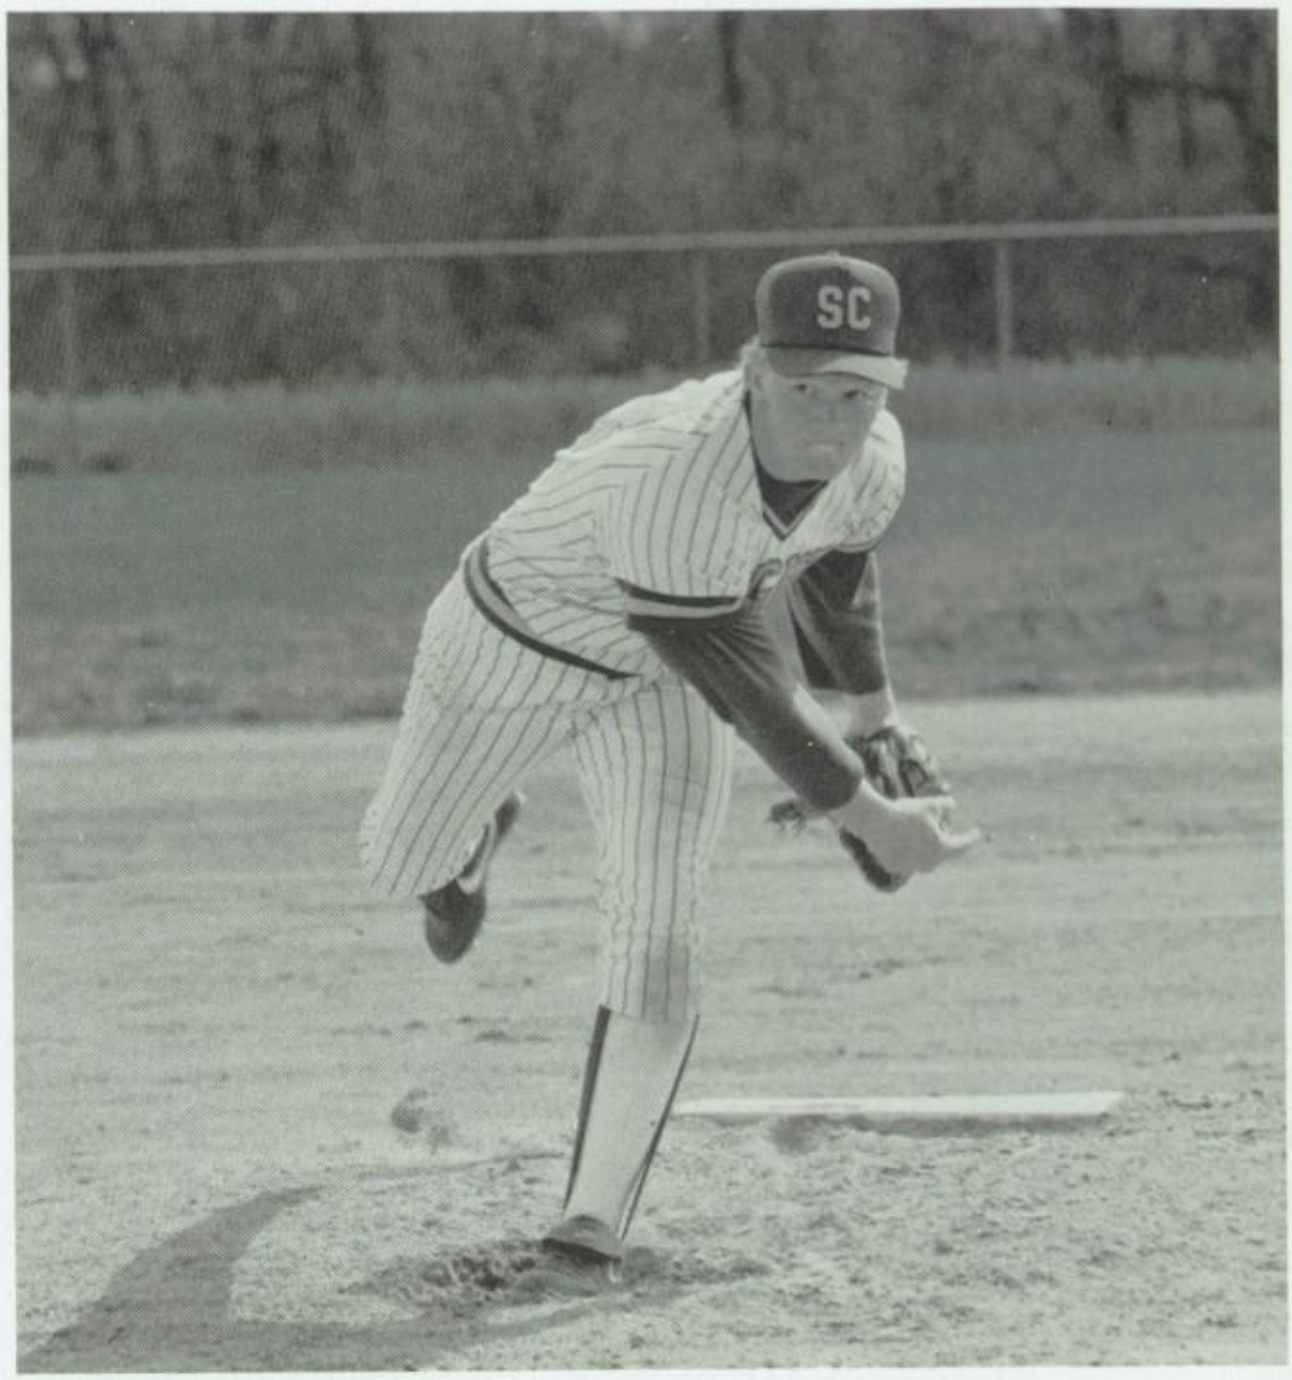
S.C. Baseball . . .



Last spring, the Sussex Central baseball team proved it could play with the best in the state. Coaches Jim Hudson and Butch Marvel led a powerful Knight squad to a 14-7 overall record. This outstanding record carried the team to the state tournament and finished them in the top four teams in Delaware. S.C. knocked off Concord and A.I. DuPont in the tournament to advance to the semi-finals. Unfortunately, they lost to St. Mark's who later went on to win the title. This is the best season that Sussex Central baseball has had in a long time.

S.C. Softball . . .

The girls' softball team started the 1985 season with four consecutive losses. The team then decided to play ball and won six games in a row to win the Henlopen Northern Division and a berth in the State Tournament. Led by all conference Jill Young, Kelli Lesniczak, and "fire baller" Terri Tipton, the team advanced to the State Semi-finals before bowing to Delcastle. They finished the season 6-6.

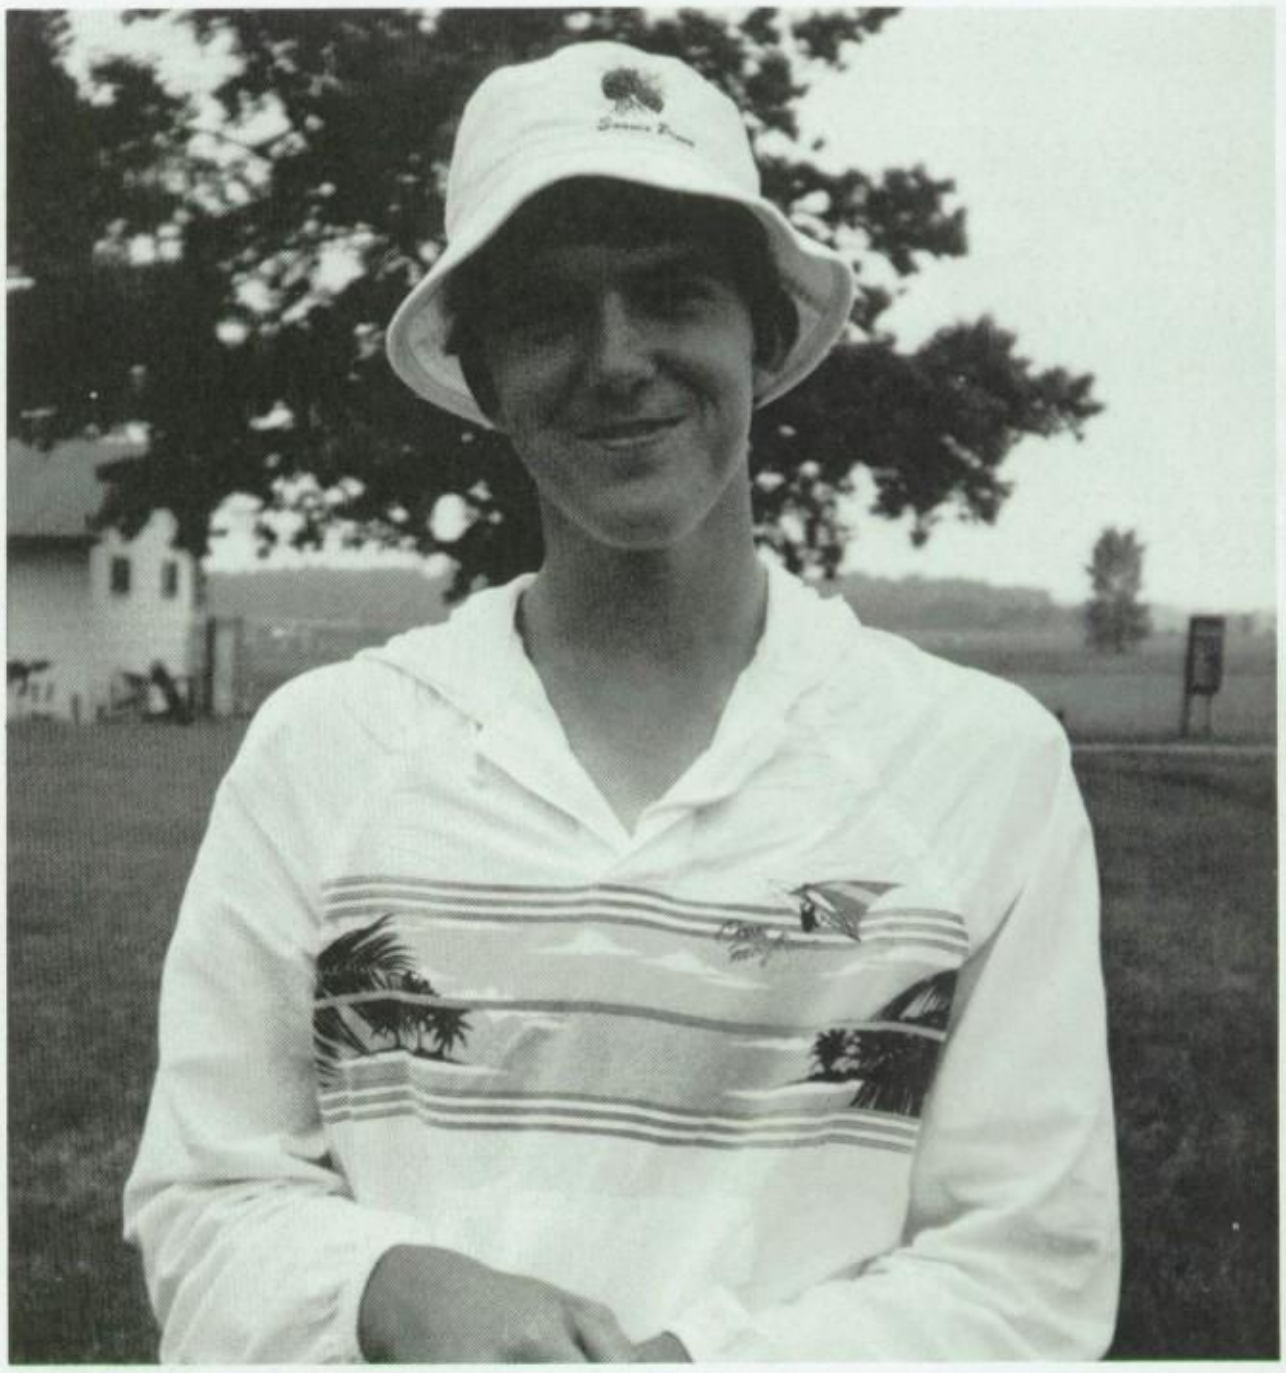
"Get The Ball Airborn, Howard!"

Coach Long



The 1985 golf team finished second in the State Championship Tournament. The team was led by Bill Hansen, who took 1st place in the tournament with a score of 150. Shane Long was 4th in the state with a score of 152. Both players were all-state for the second year.

Tim Mumford, Tom Hartzell, Chris Shuman, Marc Hansen, Tom Tipton, Eric Ratcliffe, Grant Ratcliffe, and Howard Richardson were also members of 85's successful golf team. Good luck in '86.

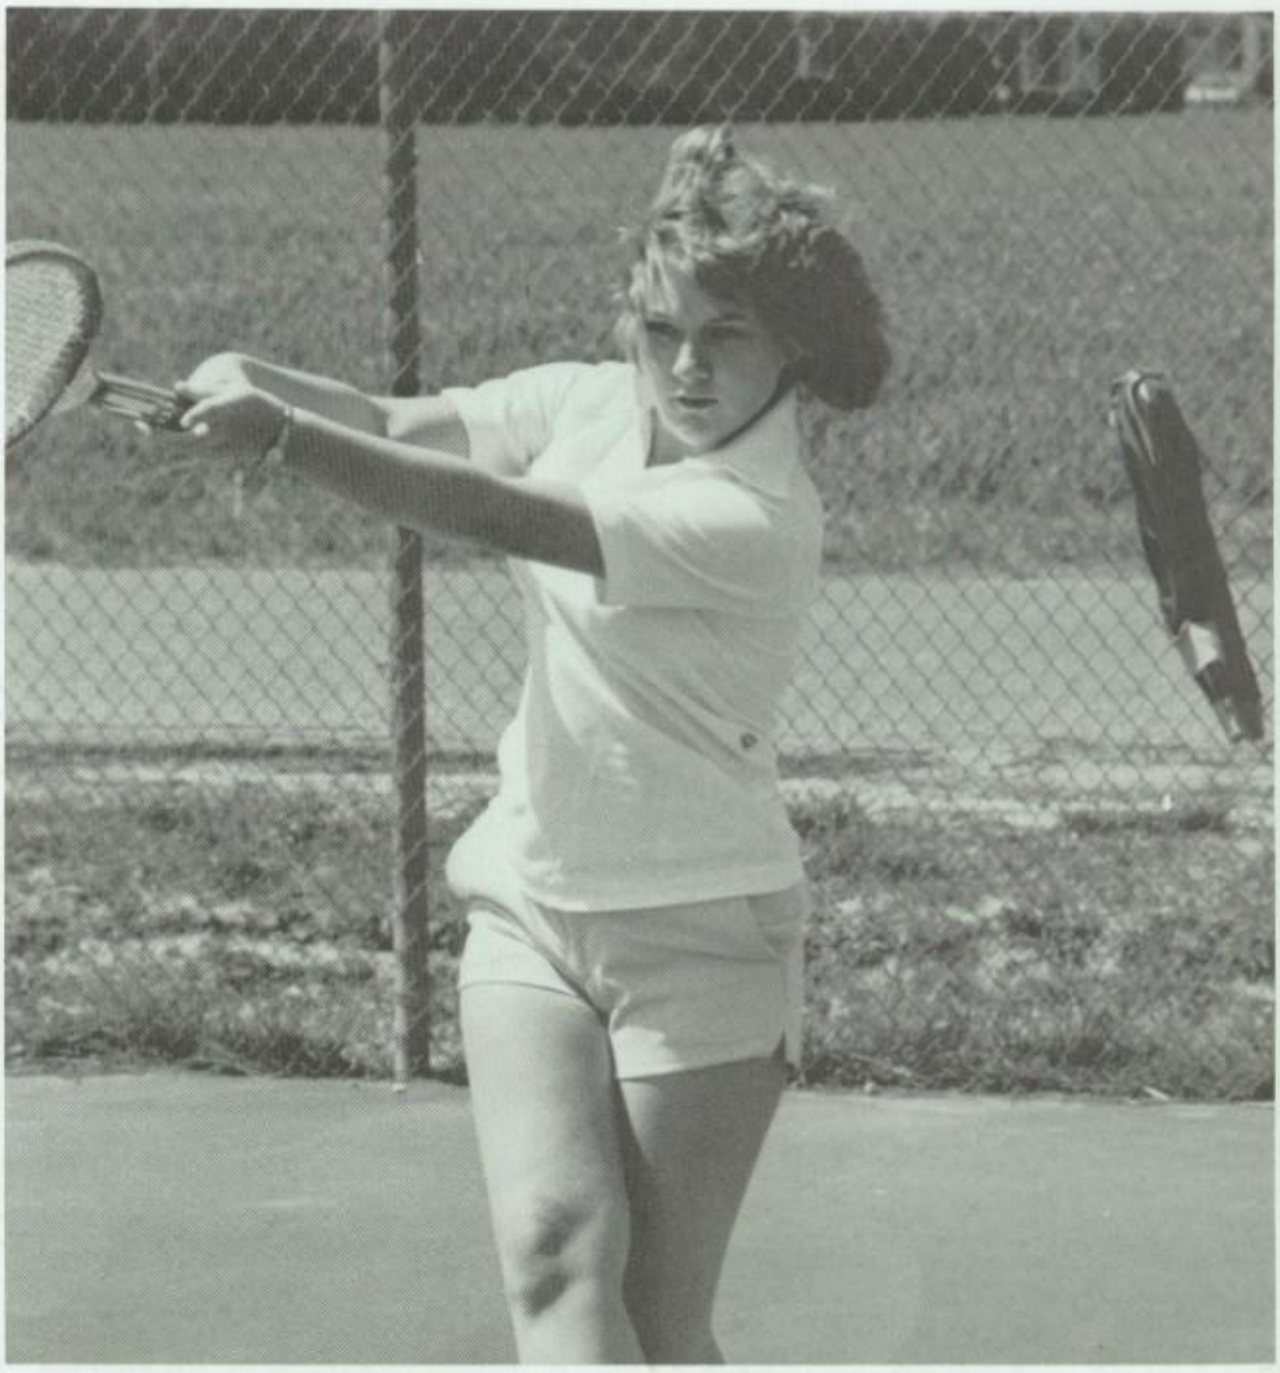
"Working Well Together" . . .



The Sussex Central girls' tennis team ended their season with a 1 - 8 record. Coach Hoffman commented that this season was indeed a learning experience for the girls. The team worked hard this season. They work well together, but they still have a long way to go.

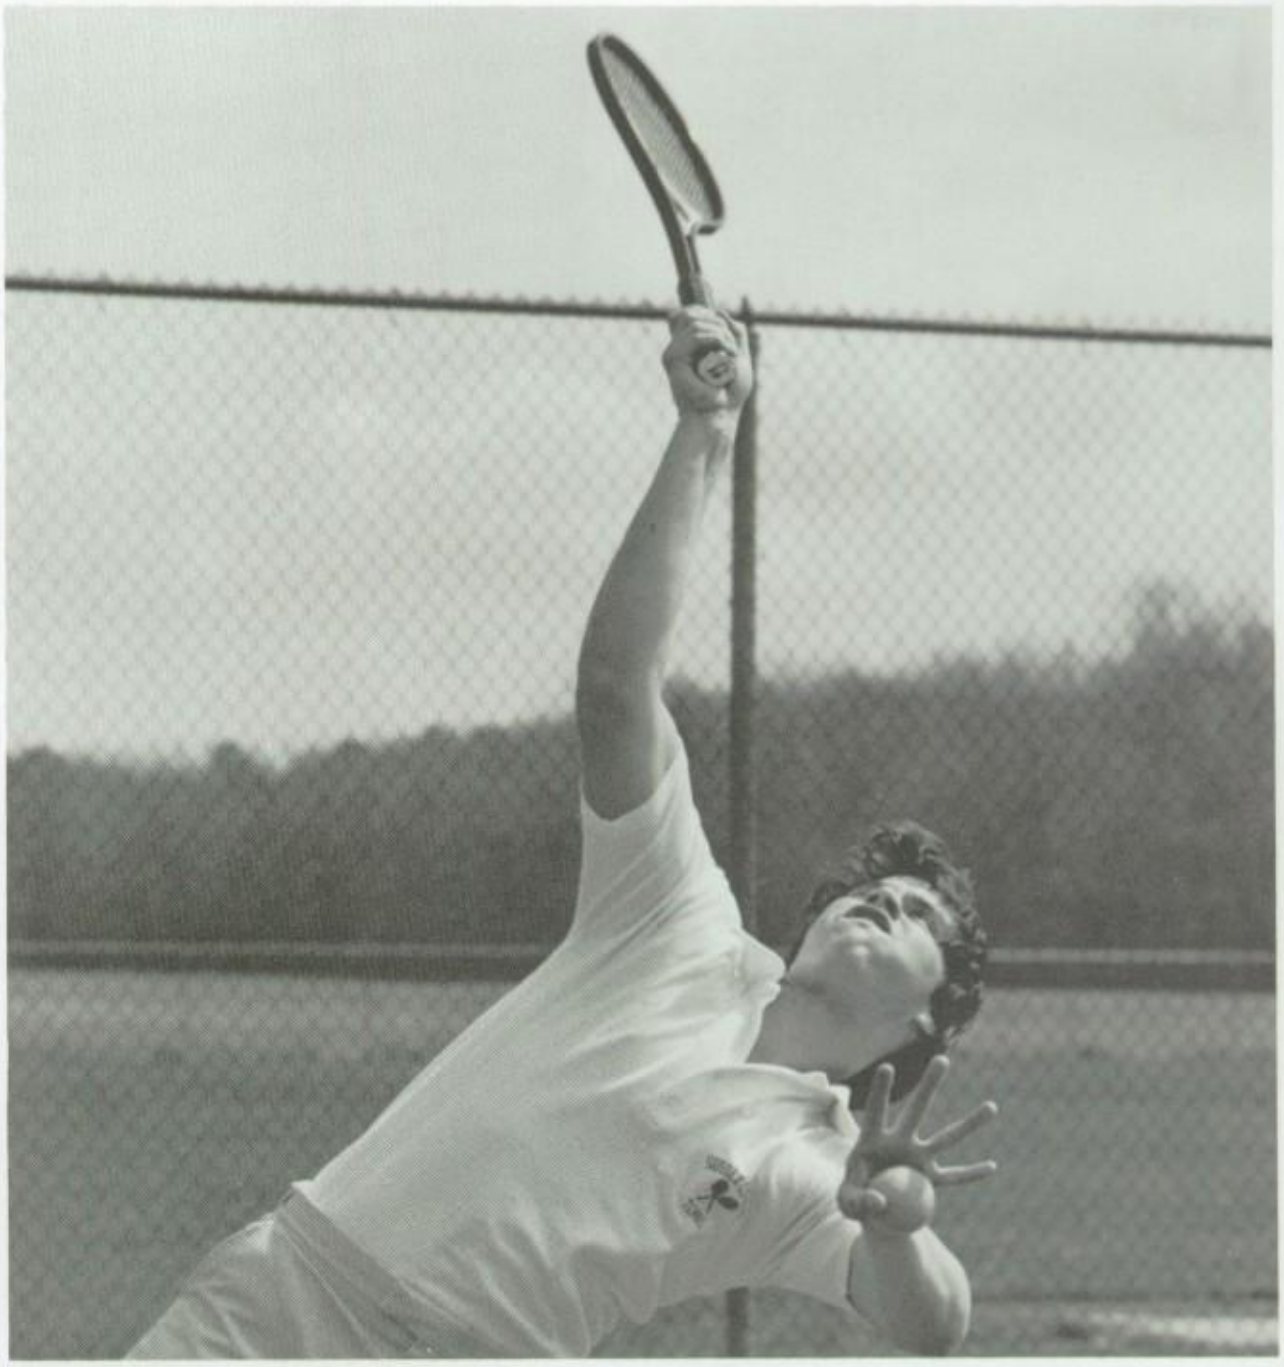
Let's Talk About



The Sussex Central boys' tennis team ended the '85 season with a 1 - 8 record. Under first year coach Kaus, the team worked very hard and learned a lot. With a lot of determination, the team hopes to do better in '86.

"Good Individuals, But No Distance . . ."

Coach Snyder

The 1985 spring track team finished their season 2 - 8. According to Coach Snyder, there were some fine individual performances, but overall the season was disappointing. The main disadvantage was a lack of good distance people. Coach Snyder cited the following athletes for their performance: Paul Watson, Mike Goetz, Nate McNair and James Whaley.

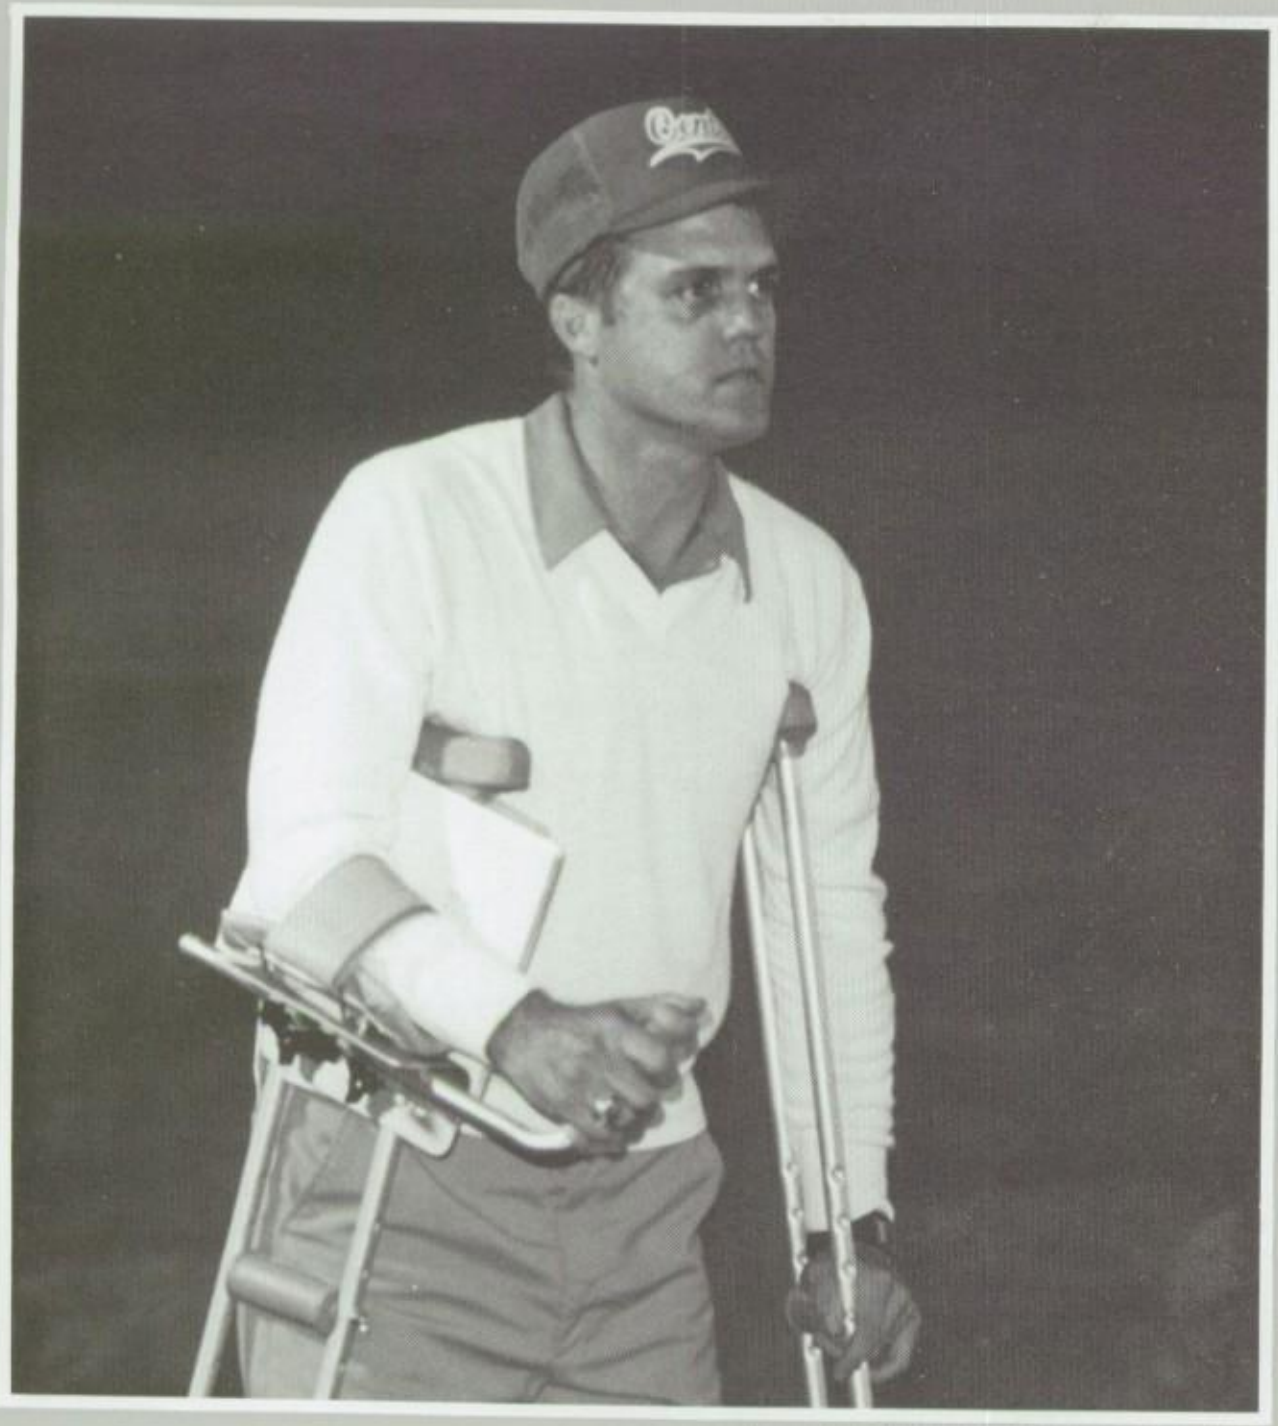
Welcome Back, Coach Hudson!



Coach Hudson

Principal Earl Savage had the following comments to make about Coach Charlie Hudson, head football coach for Sussex Central: "The man's love for the students and for the program has played a significant role in his remarkable recovery. He has accepted the challenge, sometimes at the expense of his own health and welfare, far beyond what we would expect of a normal individual. At the beginning to mid-point of the summer when he was still in the hospital, I thought we'd have to have an interim coach this year, because I didn't think he would be able to handle the task yet. Through his determination and motivation, he has recovered to a point where he can ably maintain the program. The students of Sussex Central have benefited emensely from his determination and courage."

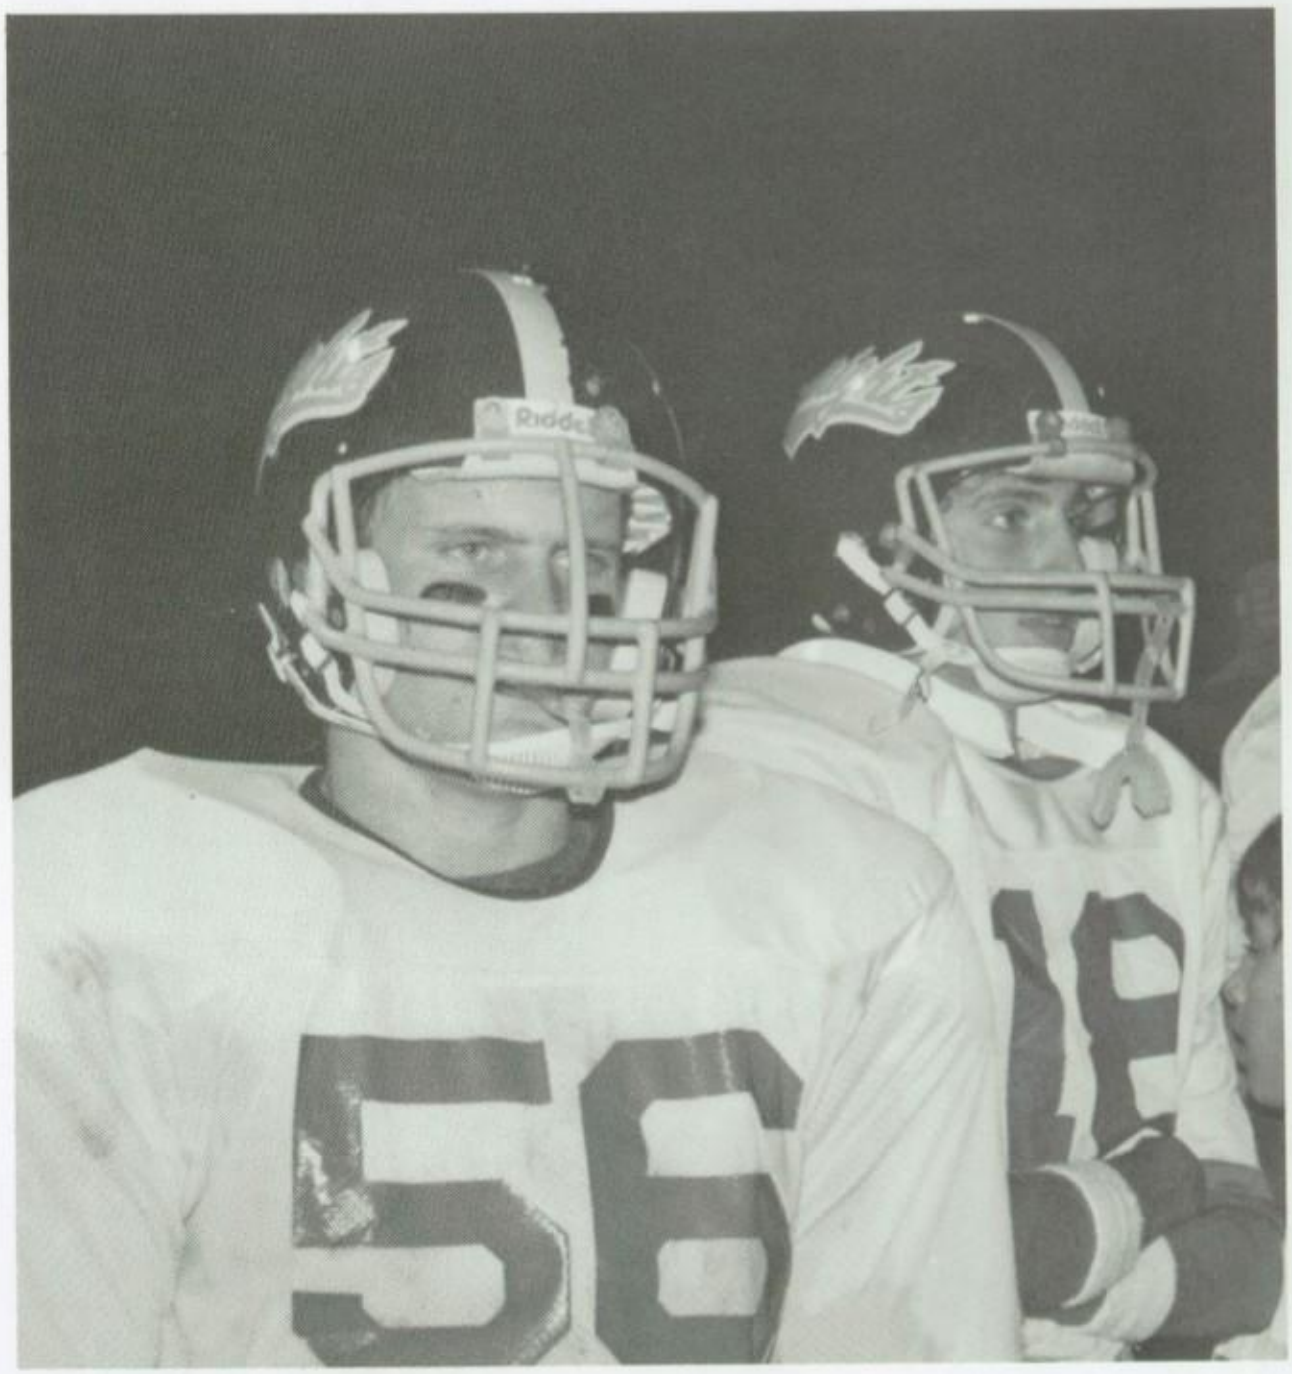
"Quest For The Best" . . .



The 1985 Varsity Football team finished their season with a 2-7 record. They were diappointed because they had anticipated a better season. Even though they only won two games, they continued to show team pride and unity. After all the criticism they took, they still fought very hard. This is what we admired most about our football team.

Congratulations are in order for: Jimmy Scott-1st team defense (safety), Dennis Basara-2nd team defense (end), Billy Messick-2nd team defense (noseguard), Ronnie Phillips- 2nd team defense (linebacker), Lance Abbott-2nd team offense (end), and Doug Reed- Honorable Mention. Good Luck next year.

"Lady Knights . . .

The 1985 hockey team posted a final record of 8-6-1. The team was led by senior captains Karen Baker, Cindy Campbell and Rete Purnell. Rete also led the team in scoring, with eleven goals, and was selected first team All-Conference and first team All-State. Cindy received honorable mention at the conference selections.

The Lady Knights had seven shut-outs in their fifteen games, largely due to the strong goalkeeping of junior Michele Angel. The Knights suffered heart breaking 1-0 losses to Seaford and Milford on penalty strokes. In the opening round of the state tournament, they were again defeated by Seaford 1-0. The Lady Knights lose nine outstanding seniors: Baker, Campbell, Susan Hearn, Sharon Megee, Lesli Miller, Purnell, Peggy Ricketts, Karen Sipple and Sharon Thornton.

The junior varsity had a successful year, finishing at 3-4-3. The team's leading scorer was sophomore Theresa Mitchell. Pearlean Watson and Peggy Ricketts shared the goalkeeping duties and did very well. The J.V. captains were Kathy Baker and Cindy McCabe.

The Knights look forward to the 1986 season. With many outstanding players returning, they should be a team to be reckoned with in the conference.

Over The Hills . . .

The '85 - '86 version of the Sussex Central Cross Country squad was led by senior Jerry Peden, Jr. The team finished the year with a 1 - 8 record, with the only victory coming against Laurel. The team did better in the conference meet by finishing in front of Laurel and Smyrna. Next year's squad should be very competitive, with all members returning except two. Even though the record didn't show it, the team improved incredibly from last year, and scored in all of its meets. this year. Even though they didn't win a lot, the team always had fun, which should be expected from a team coached by Coach Dean.

This year the boys' varsity basketball team had a tremendous season. Their games were high powered and full of action. Attendance at games both home and away was excellent. With the closeness and team work of all players, it was obvious that each member of the team worked hard and was dedicated to the team as a whole. Even in the execution of plays, one could see the precise passing and accuracy in shooting. This has been one of the most exciting and definitely unforgettable seasons in the history of Sussex Central Basketball. Thanks guys, and good luck in the future.

This year's junior varsity team held this year as one of learning and rebuilding. There were quite a few players who had potential but lacked the experience to be effective players. This year the junior varsity concentrated on learning plays and gaining experience by playing opponents. Next season promises to be a good one for the junior varsity team. Go get em', guys.

"Thatta Baby"

Once again, the 1986 Sussex Central Girls' Basketball team had a very successful season. They were led by senior captains Tweety Wise and Karen Polk, two very solid and key players. However, the Lady Knights still had to overcome alot of adversity because of a lack of players. Incidently, that did not stop the ladies though, if anything it only projected them to play harder as they posted another great record - under head coach Dave Marvel. Congratulations ladies!

Yearbook

The 1986 yearbook, entitled People Will Talk, has taken a lot of hard work and long hours to complete. Without the dedication and cooperation of the staff, the completion of your yearbook would not have been possible.

There are times when deadlines arrived before our work was completed. Therefore, extra hours of input have been needed from the staff. As editor of People Will Talk, I would personally like to thank the faculty for working in unison with our staff in order for us to meet our deadlines.

On behalf of the staff, I would also like to thank Mrs. Meyers for her help and dedication to this year's yearbook. Without her, People Will Talk would not exist.

A. V. Club

The A.V. Club is probably the largest active organized club within our high school. With more than fifty members, the club is devoted to learning about audio-visual equipment. And most of the participants are continually expanding their knowledge in the classroom of A.V. Club Advisor, Mrs. Helen Kaus. Without the effort of the club, the use of audio and visual aids within the classroom would be very meager. However, the club is very efficient, and many teachers have used equipment to show those "attention getting" films, slides, and video tapes we all know and love. (Sure we do.) The A.V. Club also provides sound and lighting for our in-school programs. The A.V. club is important to SCHS.

The deadline approaches and . . . (scream!) how many articles need to be typed? Cramped fingers are quite commonplace in Mrs. Donaway's seventh period class, which is devoted to the publication of the Jouster. Whether due to endless minutes tapping at the keys of a retarded typewriter, or due to frantic scrawling of an article that should have been written weeks ago, everyone on the Jouster staff feels the pressure. Sports . . . Dedications . . . Fashion . . . Music . . . Controversy . . . Gossip . . . Advice . . . Surveys. What!? F.F.A.

The purpose of the Future Farmers of America is to promote leadership in students who get involved in the program and to allow them to participate in numerous activities at the school, on the state level, and also on the national level. The F.F.A. offers good advantages and opportunities for our future farmers.

This year the F.F.A. grew, popped and sold their own popcorn; sold Florida citrus fruit for a fund raiser; and sponsored an inspiring guest lecturer. Several F.F.A. members were also able to travel to Kansas for a convention.

Students and faculty members showed no surprise when Mr. Savage announced the selection of Mrs. Thalia Fisher as teacher of the year. Mrs. Fisher has taught biology at S.C.H.S. since 1972. She sets high standards for herself as well as for her students. Senior Billy White says of her: "You learn more in her class with a C than you do in most classes with an A." Former students find themselves well prepared for college biology after Fisher-brand high school biology.

Mrs. Fisher has introduced the computer age in her lab. All S.C.H.S. biology students are now able to reinforce their skills and concepts using the newly installed computers.

Mrs. Fisher says of herself, "I like to keep busy." She manages to do this by teaching G.E.D. classes at night, teaching in-service classes for teachers and administrators and pursuing her hobbies of sewing, knitting, ceramics and cake decorating.

Congratulations, Mrs. Fisher! We are glad you find time in you busy life for us!

Last Will And Testament

Lisa Allen I leave to S.C. all the great memories from my sophomore to senior years; to all my teachers my deepest appreciation and thanks for all the effort they put forth in my education; and to Vikki C. and Dana J. I leave all of my books and hope. Make the best of these years, you won't have them long.

Christine Anderson I leave to my brother, Billy, all the good times at S.C.; and to Trina, Chrissy, Pam and Jenn all the crazy and wild times we've had. Remember there is still more to come!!

Jimmy Andrie I leave to my cousins, all my teachers and books; to Mr. Peden, a book on how to really memorize; and to Mr. Marvel a new hair style.

Christina Angel I, Christina Angel, leave Michele, Jodi and Cindy "101 tardy excuses" to Kat and Rose, a "Potpourri dinner", to my parents "peace of mind", and to Chris Reeves "all my love".

Dawn Baker To Bonnie, Beth and Brenda I leave all our crazy memories; to Darren Dorey a big "Thank You" for all the advice; and to Lew Talley all my love.

Karen Baker To Pebbles and Monnie I leave a state championship title in hockey; to Lisa T. and Lesli M. I leave all our long talks; and to Kathy, I leave my Gumby legs.

Lori Baker To Bill and Rodney I leave hub caps; to Andi and Scott the memory of the afterwards of '84 football banquet. To my sister, Danna Baker, I leave this school, thank God!

John Balas To the juniors I leave all the uncracked and unthrown eggs; to my brother, all the bad things I've done; and to the underclassmen I leave all my books and much luck.

Keith Banks I leave all my love to Lisa M.

Kyle Banks I leave all my love to Kim D.

Dennis Basara To Mike McCarty and Scott Taylor I leave another long summer with "Rowdy Roddy!"; to Robert Ruffin, a muzzle to control his "jaws"; to the "Beast" Shultie I leave two "real" guns; to Mrs. Kaus, a sincere "thanks!". and to Coach Charlie Hudson, my utmost respect and admiration.

William Batchelor To Jill Porter I leave the thought of "I'll be back"; to Darren Dorey I leave my Spanish homework in locker no. 354; and I leave Woody that nonsensibal world.

Christopher Bennett To my brother I leave the ability to get along with his teachers.

Bob Berner I leave all my untaken detentions to Mr. Wagner, since he was the one who gave them to me in the first place.

Scott Biller To Bob Ribinsky I leave my seat in Mr. Peden's P.O.D. class; to Mr. Long and next year's soccer team the best of luck; to the juniors, the fun times of being a senior.

Regina Bintliff I leave all my P.O.D. test grades, and my nasty disposition to Mr. Long and Mr. Marvel; my parking place out front to Sandy Spagnola.

Theresa Brittingham To Mr. Mitchell I leave another great 7th period like this year's; to all my friends, the laughs of all the good times we had and especially the ones left to come.

Dawn Bryan To Mr. Lobo I leave my thanks; to Tami R. and Billy R. I leave the best of luck in everything they attempt to do; and to Kenna H. I leave my books and teachers.

Susan Burton To my brother, Jeff, I leave all of the great times at S.C.; to all of you out there who "think" you're bad, you're not; and to the juniors three cases of eggs . . . better luck next year!!

Carmen Cambpell To two of my dearest friends, H. Kaus and Fran Donaway, MANY THANKS. To my other best friends, lots of luck and expecially lots of love.

Cindy Campbell To Lesli I leave a tent that won't fall down and all the New Year's Parties you "think" you can handle; to the juniors I leave a mop, 500 eggs, and a scrub brush; and to my teachers, much gratitude and admiration.

Dean Cannon I leave to Mr. Dean a second win next year; I leave to the juniors a fat hen to give them some ammunition; and to my teachers, I leave you some quiet. FOR ONCE!

Lori Carmean To my brother, Jeff, I leave all my books and good times of S.C. To all the teachers "Watch out. He's worse than me." To Pepper I leave all the love and happiness, all the memories of the last two years we have spent together.

Deborah Cash To Kenny I leave all of my love.

Andrea Cathell I leave all my love to Darryl Brasure. I leave all my books to the juniors and my homework to the sophomores.

Thomas Chafin To Matt I leave all my car payments. I leave Kelly my car and the fender Mustang. To Stacy I leave my albums. To Jon I leave Marylin Chambers.

Elizabeth Clifton I leave to my best friends Brenda Hitchens, Bonnie Cooper, and Dawn Baker all the horrendous times in SCHS.

Blaine Coldiron I leave to Mr. Handy a class that won't laugh when he sings; and to the underclassmen the ability not to get caught and how to handle the faculty.

Bonnie Cooper I leave to Dawn, Beth, and Brenda the memories of the "awesome foursome" and friendship forever; and to Nicole D. all the rowdy times that are hard to forget.

Miles Coverdale To the underclassmen I leave S.C.; to Mrs. Kaus my appreciation and thanks; to Rodney Marvel the Playboy Mansion; and to S.C. my brother.

Shawn Cullen To Diane I leave my grades and a lot of love; to Mrs. Rust I leave Diane. I leave Mr. Snyder a toy chemistry set; I leave Mr. McCarron an X-rated French movie for his A.P. class next year.

Keith Daniels I leave my car to Wilmbily, my stereo to Tracy and Greg; I leave my "old" sneakers to Ricky; to Greg I leave my brains. I leave all my love to Shirlronia "Daniels".

Nancy Darling I leave my brother Tommy all my teachers and all my books. I leave Toni Lewis my parking space and the good times at S.C.

Kathy Davidson To Karen Lathbury I leave my seat in chorus and the fun times in county. To all the juniors, the will to last through one more year at SCHS.

JoAnn Davis To my teachers I leave my books; to Dawn and Regina I leave my maturity; to Kathy I leave "NOTHING", and to Robert Wadsley I leave my love.

Lori Davis To my brother Mark I leave all my books and all my teachers plus all the great times at S.C.H.S. To the juniors I leave ALL the great times of becoming a SENIOR!

Sherida Davis I leave all of my books to my brothers and sisters, and I leave my love, peace and happiness to S.C. Nancy Darling a pair of socks and to Lish I leave my P.O.D. books and the good looking guys.

Thomas Dennis To my brother I leave my weights and good looks. To Bright Eyes I leave my great personality.

Jon Dietrich To Mr. McCarron I leave my haircut, "beaucoup de racines" and a "merci". To Mr. Handy I leave my singing ability; and to Mrs. Kaus much deep appreciation and affection.

Daniel Dodd I leave all the best wishes to S.C. and lots of luck to Stephaney D. and Kristin C.

Darren Dorey To "Pickle" I leave the memory of our trip to Millsboro; to Dennis Murray, the summer of '85; and to Lisa T., thanks for being you.

Kenny Dorey I leave all my great grades to my brother, all my football skills along with my car to Danny Stoeckel, and finally I leave Laurie Shortt to Kevin Fisher.

Nicole Dorey To Lisa, DeAnna, Bonnie, and Lynn I leave the memories of a great senior year! And to DeAnna I leave the ability to stay awake, to Lisa I leave all my patience.

Janet Elliott I leave all the best of luck to my sister, Elizabeth Elliott, and to my brother, Harold Elliott.

Donald Eskridge To my brothers I leave all the great memories of SCSH. I also leave all the books and homework I won't miss.

Jesse Eskridge I leave all my books and homework to my brother Chad (he needs them). I also leave to my special sweetheart, Dawn, all my love and our cherished moments together.

Lisa Evans To Nicole, DeAnna, Desiree and Bonnie all the good times at S.C. and to Ladd all my love.

Stephen Evans I give to the underclassmen all the headaches I had to put up with, especially Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Barkauskie.

Michele Feichtl To my friends I leave all the great times at S.C. and the best of luck; to Jim I leave all the times we've shared; and to all my teachers, my special thanks.

Jacqueline Finney I leave to Darrus Finney and Jermaine Harris my ability to learn, and to Katrina Smith and Lavern Satchell my good looks. To all four of you the desire to walk the green.

Monica Finney I leave my books and my seat in P.O.D. class to my my sister. And to the class of "87" the ability to graduate.

Kenneth Fisher I leave all my love to Debbie.

Barbara Floyd I leave Sharon Floyd my brain and my skills in clothing. I leave Steve Floyd my P.O.D. book. But best of all, I leave Central.

Jeffrey Foskey I leave all my books and homework to anyone who wants them. Mostly, I just leave school.

George Georgeopoulos To the juniors I leave all the egg shells. To the sophomores I leave my intelligence. And to Jill Porter I leave a horse brush.

Gregory Gibbs To my sister Debbie I leave my P.O.D. and English books, and the substitute in cooking class. To the upcoming seniors the best of luck.

Natalie Gibbs I leave Sussex Central with happiness and joy. I leave my brother, Freddie Fonville, my history and P.O.D. books. I leave all the girls at S. C. my good looks and pretty smile.

Michael Goetz To Jill I leave a brush and a pillow cushion.

Laurence Guiader I leave my Mondays to Mr. Quillen. I leave my laughs to Matt and Tommy!

Erwin Hall To my brother I leave my charm and personality of the school.

Cheryl Halliday To my brother all my books and to all the underclassmen, all of the good times at SCSH.

Karen Hardy I, Karen, being of sound mind, leave my withand charm to my sisters. To my parents I leave my love and to my brothers I leave good sense.

Thomas Hartzell To the juniors I leave 500 eggs; to Mr. Kutchen a car to fix; to Missy P. a flea collar; and to my little brother Bird, lots of luck and my many good grades.

PEOPLE WILL ALWAYS

. . . Well the year is almost at an end and it's been an exciting one. The football team didn't have to good a year, but who's to say next year won't take them to the top. This year we lost Mrs. VanAuken but gained an egg committee. The basketball team did great, but we can't say the same for the sophomore float. Even though the class of '86 won it again, the juniors kept walking away with the spirit stick. Slave day was fun; we had people dressed up as everything from dogs to women-beaters to playboy bunnies. And then there was the never-ending parking problem that will probably go on for years. Who's to say that maybe the sophomores won't find an answer?

TALK . . .

. . . ABOUT S. C. S. H.

For the seniors, May and June are a beginning, but also an end. It's the beginning of a new and exciting life, looking forward to college campus life or the busy working world, or maybe a year of relaxing and hiking around Europe or the Bahamas; but it's also the end of skipping classes, moaning and grumbling about homework, cramming for tests, late nights on the telephone, and most of all forcing underclassmen to bow down and accept us as the ruling class. This is a time for reflecting on the past as well as anticipating the future.

The juniors are eagerly awaiting the chance to dethrone us and set themselves up as the new rulers. Since it was impossible for them to blend with us, they are awaiting their turn to say "Seniors rule!" For them, there is no looking back right now, only looking ahead . . . next year they too will look back and remember the past.

The sophomores! Oh what a deliriously happy time for them! So happy to be at the high school and trying so hard to fit in and act grown up. Sophomores, live for today, and don't miss one part of life. That's really what being cool is all about. Oh well, maybe next year . . . or the year after.

1986 — the year of winning teams, excellent academic achievements, wonderful newspaper, radio and television coverage, powerfully strong friendships, and tremendous school pride.
